GEC Global Meeting 2017

01.11.2017 - 03.11.2017 | All day

For the transition to green economies to to to scale it needs to be owned and driven by small entrepreneurs and local businesses. Yet governments and institutions find it notoriously difficult to reach smaller enterprises.

For its 2017 Global Meeting, the Green Economy Coalition (GEC) is pleased to be partnering with the Caribbean Natural Resources Institute (CANARI), 1 - 3rd November, in the Port of Spain, Trinidad. The meeting will focus on how to support green enterprises so they can drive the transition to inclusive green economies.

More information here.